

WAGNER'S RING CYCLE LEIPZIG

Leipzig – 08 days

Departure: May 07, 2018

Return: May 14, 2018

This city in Germany, once a part of the former East Germany, produced many famous composers. The birthplace of the reformation started by Martin Luther, is also the birthplace of Handel, Johann Sebastian Bach and Richard Wagner. It also served as the inspirational work place for Mendelssohn, Carl Maria von Weber and Robert Schumann. This area also gave rise to numerous literary giants, like Goethe and Schiller. We have arranged a whole day excursion to Weimar to see the houses of these legendary writers. HAT Tours have been operating opera tours to East Germany since 1982.

Tuesday, May 08. (B,D). LEIPZIG

Upon arrival at the Leipzig – Hale airport, take a taxi to the deluxe RADISSON BLU HOTEL, where we stay six nights. We will reimburse you the taxi fare. Briefing and cocktails at the hotel. Gala Welcome dinner at a gourmet restaurant.

Wednesday, May 09. (B,D). WEIMAR - LEIPZIG

Today we take a full day excursion southwest of Leipzig to WEIMAR, one-time capital of Germany after the First World War, to visit homes of the legendary writers Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Frederick Schiller. We will also see the house of composer Franz Liszt. Late afternoon return to Leipzig.

Weimar which is now the UNESCO World Heritage site was the focal point of German Enlightenment and world-famous writers Goethe and Shiller, artists Wassily Kandinsky and Paul Klee, architect Walter Gropius who founded the Bauhaus movement here and composer Franz List. It was the place where Germany's first democratic constitution was signed after the First World War, giving its name to the Weimar Republic period in German politics (1918 -33), until the Nazis brought it back to Berlin.

Thursday, May 10. (B). LEIPZIG

This morning we take a walk around the city where Richard Wagner was born. Among the sights to see near our hotel are Old City Hall, the Market place and the Auerbachs Keller. This evening we will see the opera Das Rheingold by Wagner at the Leipzig Oper.

Leipzig today is Germany's fastest growing city and is celebrated by the media as a hip urban center with a very high quality of living. For centuries, it was noted as a prime location for trade fairs and it is still renowned for publishers to come from all over the world to exhibit and sell their books. Since the reunification of Germany Leipzig has undergone significant changes with many high-rise buildings and the new Leipzig Opera house.

Friday, May 11. (B). LEIPZIG

This morning we visit the Thomas Church where Johann Sebastian Bach played the organ and is buried. On Whit Sunday in 1539, Martin Luther gave a Sermon here to inaugurate the reformation. We also visit the home of composer Felix Mendelsohn. This afternoon we will see the opera Die Walküre by Wagner at Oper Leipzig.

Saturday, May 12. (B). LEIPZIG
