

WAGNER'S RING CYCLE MILAN II – 2026

Milan and visit Cremona and Bergamo – 11 days

Departure: March 8, 2026

Return: March 18, 2026

Step into a monumental moment in opera history as Teatro alla Scala unveils a breathtaking new production of Richard Wagner's Der Ring des Nibelungen.

This marks the theater's first complete Ring Cycle in a decade, guided by the visionary direction of David McVicar, whose artistic brilliance has shaped La Scala's stage across a diverse repertoire. The journey begins a new, immersing audiences in Wagner's mythological world of gods, heroes, and destiny.

*Renowned Wagnerian voices lead this unparalleled experience – Michael Volle as the formidable Wotan, Camilla Nylund as the fearless Brünnhilde, and Klaus Florian Vogt in the dual roles of Siegmund and Siegfried. With each opera building toward the climactic Götterdämmerung, this first cycle offers an exclusive opportunity to witness the grandeur of Wagner's full vision within a single week, coinciding with the 150th anniversary of the Ring's original premiere.*

This extraordinary journey is enriched by the thoughtful touches that define every one of our tours. At its heart is the iconic Hotel Casa Baglioni—an enduring favorite and a setting of refined elegance. Nestled in Milan's artistic Brera district, this historic gem offers an ambiance that mirrors the grandeur of Wagner's epic, blending timeless beauty with the comfort and charm our guests treasure..

MILAN is just not very Italian. All the Milanese do is work to make money and they refuse to indulge in the myth of la/dolce/vita. The city has its origin from Celtic Settlements, which were subdued by the romans in 222 B.C.. In 312 A.D. Emperor Constantine published the Edict of Milan making Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire. On Christmas day, 800 A.D, Pope Leo III crowned Charlemagne as the Holy Roman Emperor in the `Cathedral of Milan. To the Milanese people, all this is just history.
