

VERDI FESTIVAL ITALY – 2026

Milan and Parma – 12 days

Visit Piacenza and Cremona

Departure: October 9, 2026

Return: October 20, 2026

The Verdi Opera Festival is a sublime homage to the life and genius of Giuseppe Verdi, perhaps the most beloved and influential of Italian composers. Held in Verdi's native Parma, the festival becomes an immersive celebration, presenting his masterpieces in the very landscape that shaped his musical vision. No composer shaped the soul of Italian opera and, indeed, of Italy itself more profoundly than Verdi. Here, join discerning opera devotees from around the globe to experience transcendent performances, breathtaking venues, and the profound history of Verdi's music. This is not merely a festival; it is a tribute to the enduring power of opera, an unforgettable experience for those who cherish music, culture, and history.

Embark on a 12-day immersion in Verdi's world. Trace his origins, from the humble village of Le Roncole to the storied, medieval towns of Northern Italian cities replete with soaring cathedrals and resplendent palazzi. Reside in some of Italy's most refined hotels, dine at acclaimed restaurants, and savor the region's legendary wines.

Attend six extraordinary performances, including three at Parma's illustrious Festival Verdi, each set within a vibrant tapestry of culture and gastronomy that defines Italy's operatic heritage.

*In Milan, Teatro alla Scala, the most celebrated opera house in the world presents two exceptional evenings. On October 12, Liliana Cavani's acclaimed production of Verdi's La Traviata, conducted by Michele Gamba, stars the radiant Francesca Pia Vitale as Violetta alongside tenor Iván Ayón Rivas as Alfredo Germont and baritone Amartuvshin Enkhbat as Giorgio Germont. To hear Nadine Sierra sing Violetta at La Scala is one of the great experiences. On October 13, Giselle, choreographed in the immortal tradition of Jean Coralli and Jules Perrot and revived by the legendary French ballerina Yvette Chauviré, is conducted by Mikhail Agrest.*

*In Parma, three Festival Verdi productions unfurl across magnificent venues: the evocative Ramificazioni – Zenobia Regina at the Baroque Teatro Farnese; an intimate Aida at the Teatro Giuseppe Verdi di Busseto; and the rarely performed Alzira at the Teatro Regio di Parma, culminating in the monumental Nabucodonosor, the opera that ignited the Italian Risorgimento. Between performances, follow in Verdi's footsteps: from his birthplace in Le Roncole, to his patron's grand palazzo in Busseto, and his cherished Villa Sant'Agata. Savor a private reception with the Club dei 27, Parma's legendary society of Verdi connoisseurs.*

Along the way, encounter the medieval grandeur of Piacenza, explore the storied violin ateliers of Cremona, and indulge in the region's gastronomic treasures, Parmigiano-Reggiano, Prosciutto di Parma, and superb local wines all in a landscape synonymous with elegance and artistry.

Throughout, reside in sumptuous four- and five-star hotels, where every detail is meticulously orchestrated so that your sole focus may be the music. This journey unfolds beside a select coterie of opera connoisseurs well-traveled, erudite, and as fervent in their passion for Verdi as you. Evenings brim with spirited conversation and camaraderie over exquisite dinners each as intellectually enriching as the performances themselves.

Friday, October 9. (D*). DEPART FROM HOME TO MILAN

Depart this evening aboard any airline of your choice to Milan, Italy. Dinner and light breakfast served on the plane.

Saturday, October 10. (B,D). MILAN

Upon arrival at Milan International Airport, take a taxi to the centrally located hotel Sina de la Ville, where you will stay four nights. Afternoon free. This evening we meet in the lobby of the hotel for a briefing and Gala Welcome dinner at a gourmet restaurant.

Sunday, October 11. (B) MILAN

This morning we will visit the Milan Cathedral, an exemplary Gothic-floral architecture full of precious sculptures and gleaming stained-glass windows, is the symbolic monument of Milan which reflects six centuries of the city's history, from the Visconti era to recent times.

Continuation of the visit we will be walking through the sumptuous galleria Vittorio Emanuele until we reach the La Scala theater.

This evening we will experience a rare and unforgettable concert by the Symphonieorchester des Bayerischen Rundfunks (Bavarian Radio Symphony Orchestra) consistently ranked among the world's top five orchestras. Founded in 1949 and shaped by legendary conductors including Eugen Jochum, Rafael Kubelík, and Sir Colin Davis, the BRSO is celebrated for its rich tonal culture, interpretive depth, and peerless ensemble precision. An evening with this orchestra is not merely a concert, it is a musical event.

Milan is unlike any other Italian city. The ancient Celtic settlement was conquered by the Romans in 222 BC, and it was here, in 312 AD, that Emperor Constantine issued the Edict of Milan, making Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire. On Christmas Day 800 AD, Pope Leo III crowned Charlemagne as Holy Roman Emperor. Today, Milan is Italy's financial and fashion capital, a city that wears its extraordinary history with elegant restraint. Beneath its modern ambition lie centuries of art, music, and architecture waiting to be discovered.

Monday, October 12. (B). MILAN

Today we will do a general sightseeing in Milan by bus. First stop will be “Casa Verdi”. A visit to Casa Verdi is a unique experience. You immerse yourself in the memories of a residence that has a thousand lives to tell. Not only that of Giuseppe Verdi and his wife with their personal objects, furnishing, art collection and their respective tombs, but also those of the guests who have lived here in over a century of history. This evening we will see the opera La Traviata by Verdi at Teatro Alla Scala. Verdi's most intimate and emotionally devastating opera comes to life on one of the world's greatest stages. La Traviata (1853), based on Alexandre Dumas' La Dame aux Camélias, tells the heartbreaking story of Violetta Valéry, a celebrated Parisian courtesan who sacrifices everything for love, only to be destroyed by social convention and illness. The opera's arias “Libiamo ne' lieti calici”, Sempre libera, and the shattering “Addio del passato” are among the most beloved in the entire operatic repertoire. To hear them in the hallowed Teatro alla Scala, where the opera premiered and where Verdi himself walked the stage.

Tuesday, October 13. (B). MILAN

This morning we will have a guided visit to the Teatro alla Scala Museum, a treasure house of operatic history. The collection spans four centuries of performance history and includes original costumes and stage sets, historic instruments, portraits of legendary composers and singers, and the preserved private box of Verdi himself. Afternoon is free. This evening, we will see Giselle, the ballet by Adolphe Adam, at Teatro alla Scala. One of the crown jewels of the Romantic ballet repertoire, Giselle (1841) is a profound meditation on love, betrayal, and transcendence. La Scala's ballet company, one of Europe's oldest and most distinguished, brings the full weight of its 250-year tradition to this masterpiece.

Wednesday, October 14. (B,L). MILAN – CREMONA – PARMA

Morning departure for Cremona the city of violins, where we will have a guided tour of the most evocative corners of the city, the Piazza del Comune, the real glory of the medieval and municipal city, which collects an extraordinary concentration of historic buildings such as the cathedral of Gothic layout with Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque additions, the baptistery, octagonal in shape, certainly one of the most beautiful sacred monuments of Cremona, brought back to its former glory by a restoration that lasted over 30 years, the Torazzo, the tallest bell tower in Italy (111m) and symbol of the city, the Museo del violin, in which you can admire famous instruments by Antonio Stradivari, including “il cremonese violin” from 1715. Light lunch will be served in a traditional trattoria. Late afternoon arrival in Parma where we stay at the centrally located STENDHAL for five nights.

Parma's origins trace back to Etruscan settlement, with the city taking formal shape as a Roman colony on the Via Emilia in 183 BC. It flourished again under the French Bourbon rulers of the 18th and 19th centuries, a period that left a deep imprint on its culture and architecture. Today, Parma is celebrated worldwide for an extraordinary cluster of contributions to civilisation. Its culinary identity is globally protected: Parmigiano-Reggiano cheese and Prosciutto di Parma both carry designations of origin recognised across the globe. Its artistic legacy is anchored by Correggio, the beloved Renaissance master whose luminous cupola frescoes at the Cathedral and San Giovanni Evangelista revolutionized European painting. Music runs equally deep the magnificent Teatro Regio di Parma stands as one of Italy's great opera houses, and the city shares an intimate bond with Giuseppe Verdi, who was born just 30 kilometers away in the hamlet of Le Roncole. It also gave the world Arturo Toscanini, one of the most celebrated conductors in the history of music. Surrounded by the gentle hills and fertile plains of the Emilia-Romania remains as elegant and prosperous as its reputation suggests a city where gastronomy, art, and music have shaped daily life for centuries.

Thursday, October 15. (B,D). PARMA

This morning we start our guided walking tour of Parma's historic center. Within steps of your hotel stand some of the most exceptional medieval monuments the Duomo di Parma, whose stunning cupola fresco Assumption of the Virgin by Antonio da Correggio (1526–1530) so astonished later artists that Titian himself declared it "turned upside down, it would be the finest painting in the world." Adjacent stands the Baptistry of Parma, designed by Benedetto Antelami beginning in 1196, a masterpiece of Romanesque-to-Gothic transition clad in luminous pink Verona marble, with a magnificently painted interior that remains one of the most beautifully preserved medieval interiors in Italy. Visit the Teatro Farnese, built in 1618 for the Este family within the Palazzo della Pilotta. This extraordinary timber theater is one of the earliest to use a permanent proscenium arch is a monument to the Baroque ambition of Italian theater design and the direct ancestor of the modern operatic stage. This evening we will enjoy Ramificazioni, Zenobia Regina at Teatro Farnese di Parma.

Friday, October 16. (B,L). PARMA

This morning we are in for a very special treat – a private reception with appetizer at the Club Verdi dei 27. (Parma's Verdi fan club extraordinaire) an amazing experience for Verdi Opera Lovers. Light lunch will be served in a traditional trattoria. Late afternoon we will return to Parma.

Saturday October 17. (B,D). PARMA

This morning we drive west to see Verdi sites. Verdi's birth house in Le Roncole, Casa Barezzi, the home of Verdi's first sponsor Antonio Barezzi, Teatro Giuseppe Verdi and villa Verdi and Saint'Agata where he built an elegant home with extensive ground and planted exotic trees. This evening we will see the opera Alzira by Verdi at Teatro Regio di Parma. One of Verdi's rarely performed early operas, Alzira (1845) is a hidden gem that Festival Verdi specializes in rescuing from neglect.

Sunday, October 18. (B,D). PARMA

Today, morning is free. Your tour manager will be around for suggestion how to spend this morning. This evening we will see the opera Nabucco by Verdi at Teatro Regio di Parma. Nabucco, as it is universally known, is the opera that made Verdi famous overnight and the opera that changed the history of Italy. Premiered at La Scala on March 9, 1842, to a reception of thunderous acclaim, Nabucco tells the story of the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar and the Hebrew people he conquers and enslaves.

Monday, October 19. (B,L). PARMA - PIACENZA – MILAN

Morning departure for Piacenza It is a charming gastronomic gem in Emilia-Romagna, is the perfect lunch stop. Explore the Basilica di Santa Maria di Campagna, known for its stunning Renaissance frescoes, and the Duomo di Piacenza, a magnificent Romanesque cathedral with breathtaking art and panoramic views from its bell tower.
